Did you know...?

On Tuesday, September 25, our eighth graders got a taste of what it is like to be an adult. They researched a potential career choice and looked up the salary for this career. Then they attended the "Reality Store" where they had to visit different booths to do real-life activities such as pay monthly bills and deal with unexpected events like losing a job or being arrested. It was an eye-opening experience for the eighth graders.

Daily Prayers for Life

Sunday for All People

Father, on this, the first day of the week, the Lord's Day, we celebrate the resurrection of Jesus, Your Son, Redeemer of all people. Through His victory over death, He renewed Your gift of life within us and opened to all the way to life without end. Just as He died for all, so did He rise for all. May people the world over then be free to share and to celebrate that life He has won for us. Hear my prayers, accept my sacrifices of this day for all whose lives are diminished by oppression, by poverty, by sickness and suffering. Give them, Father, a fuller share in the life, in the happiness You have blessed me with. I ask You for this through Jesus. Amen.

Monday for Families

God, our Father, in Your wisdom and love for us, You have given us an example of the importance of the family to society and to world order by choosing it as the medium through which Jesus, Your Son, our Redeemer was born into our world. Through my prayers, my sacrifices, my daily example, help me to reaffirm the value of the family to the stability of world society. Bless our efforts to resist the attempts of all who would erode or minimize the need for encouraging the formation of families, bound together by love for You and for one another, as the basic unit of the social order. Help us to see what is best for the family, for the society, for our world and to pursue that goal successfully with the help of Your grace. Amen.

Tuesday for the Unborn

Through the workings of the Holy Spirit, Father, I ask Your blessing on the efforts of people the world over to protect the rights and lives of the unborn. Help us to see in them an extension of Your love. Bless our attempts to preserve for them the right to share Your great gift of life. Touch the hearts of people everywhere so they might recognize the right to life shared by all. We ask You this through Christ, our Lord. Amen

Wednesday for Children

Father, hear the prayer I offer You for the children of the world. May we recognize in their innocence, simplicity and optimism Your presence. Give us the courage and foresight to alleviate the problems they will surely face in the world we leave them. May our legacy to them be the integrity of our lives, an unflinching dedication to serve the common good, and lasting love for the work Your Son came among us to assure, namely, the eternal happiness of all. Grant these things through Christ, our Lord, Amen.

Thursday for Youth

Merciful Father, I ask Your continued blessings and protection for the young people of this world. The problems of peace, poverty and justice which confront them seem insurmountable but they are not. With the help of Your guidance and the support of Your grace, help them to continue to devote their energies to these problems they have so convincingly called to our attention. They want peace. Help them find it. They cry out for justice. Help them to bring it to people everywhere. They look for an end of poverty. Help them to reach that goal so that their efforts may result in a world where the lives of all people are marked with a fairer share of this life's goods and happiness. Amen.

Friday for Adults

Father, this world of ours is the only one we have. As imperfect, as problem-filled as it is, we ask Your help in making it over, little by little, day by day, so that it more closely resembles the kingdom of Your son. Make concern for others a part of our daily lives. Strengthen our efforts to share with others the material goods with which You have blessed us. Open our hearts and minds to the solutions we seek to make life, all life, better for more people everywhere. Set our sights on higher things, on a greater good, so that we may, through our love for others, make a better world a reality. We ask for this through Jesus, our Savior. Amen.

Saturday for the Aged

Loving Father, give us the vision to see beyond today, beyond tomorrow, beyond the years ahead so that we may appreciate what the aged have done for us. Help us to understand the problems, the concerns which now affect their lives. May we make a daily effort to repay their sacrifices for us with kindness, patience, interest and love. Help us to see You in them. Help us to make ourselves in the context of their lives. Help us to make patience and support the cornerstone of our relations with the aging, so that when the years overtake us, we may be treated with the respect and dignity that all people hope for. I ask You this in the name of Jesus, my Savior, Amen.
