Stewardship - A Way of Life

April 5, 2020

Palm Sunday

"As they were marching out, they came upon a man of Cyrene, Simon by name; this man they pressed into service to carry his cross." MATTHEW 27:32

The Lord calls us to love God and to love our neighbor. A neighbor is anyone you come across in your daily life. Every day we are presented with opportunities to love our neighbor and help him "carry his cross". These opportunities aren't usually big events, they are usually ordinary occurrences like helping someone carry their groceries or holding the door open for them. The key is being aware of the times God puts you in a position to help without reward.

Thank You

Indiana's Catholic Bishops Suspend Public Sunday and Weekday Masses

In light of new information and recommendations from health officials concerning the danger of the COVID-19 pandemic and the urgency to stem the spread of the virus, the five Catholic bishops of Indiana have suspended effective March 18 and until further notice all public Sunday and weekday Masses throughout the Province of Indianapolis, which is comprised of the Archdiocese of Indianapolis and the Dioceses of Gary, Evansville, Fort Wayne-South Bend, and Lafayette.

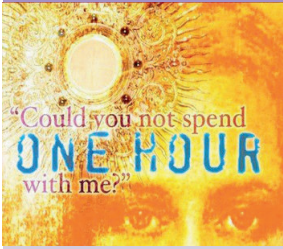

In addition, St. Mary Parish in Greensburg, beginning on March 18, is also closing the Adoration Chapel, will not have Communion Service on Mondays, will not hold Stations of the Cross on Fridays in Lent, will not offer the Sacrament of Reconciliation on Saturdays. Weddings and funerals will have a limited number of attendees. Pastor, Fr. John Meyer will offer Masses privately for the good of the people, the Church, and for the intention of the day.

The archbishop and some of the priests on his staff will be making online Masses available soon. Please visit the homepage of the archdiocese, www.archindy.org, for more information.

During a time of prayer on Sunday or while viewing the Mass on T.V. or online, the faithful are encouraged to make an act of Spiritual Communion. This beautiful devotional practice in the Church is a real source of grace in communion with our Lord. Below is an example of a prayer for spiritual communion:

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

The faithful are also encouraged to prayerfully read the readings of Sacred Scripture for the day or to pray the rosary.

Do you feel called to be a substitute adorer?
We would love to have you!
If interested, please contact
Linda Ortman 812- 614-4553
(cell)

Adoration is closed until further notice.

The Funeral Meal Committee is looking for some volunteers to bring in salads, vegetables, or desserts. If interested, please contact the parish office at 812-663-8427 ext 200 or email tkramer@stmarysgreensburg.com.

ROSARY FOR THE UNBORN

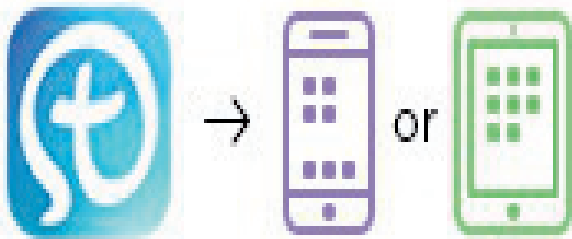

All are welcome to join us in praying the Rosary for the Unborn on every Tuesday at 11:30 am at home.

Reimagining the Examen is an interactive App that leads you through a series of Examens, encouraging you to sit in prayer with God each day. You can select an examen (relationships, habits, fears, etc.) and select your own background music. This would be the perfect app for someone needing guidance during evening prayer or reflection during Adoration.

ALUMINUM CANS

We have been collecting aluminum cans for quite some time and continue to do so. Proceeds from the cans benefit our mission trips. Bagged cans can be dropped off at our storage building behind the school. Thanks for your continued support!

Join us in Prayer – for an end to the Coronavirus Pandemic

Novena Prayer to St. Rocco

O Great St. Rocco, deliver us, we beseech thee, from the scourges of God; through thy intercession, preserve our bodies from contagious diseases, and our souls from the contagion of sin. Obtain for us salubrious air; but, above all, purity of heart. Assist us to make good use of health, to bear suffering with patience; and, after thy example, to live in the practice of penance and charity, that we may one day enjoy the happiness which thou has merited by thy virtues.

St. Rocco, pray for us (say three times).

PRAYER FOR THOSE AFFECTED BY CORONAVIRUS

By Kerry Weber

Jesus Christ, you traveled through towns and villages "curing every disease and illness." At your command, the sick were made well. Come to our aid now, in the midst of the global spread of the coronavirus, that we may experience your healing love.

Heal those who are sick with the virus. May they regain their strength and health through quality medical care.

Heal us from our fear, which prevents nations from working together and neighbors from helping one another.

Heal us from our pride, which can make us claim invulnerability to a disease that knows no borders.

Jesus Christ, healer of all, stay by our side in this time of uncertainty and sorrow.

Be with those who have died from the virus. May they be at rest with you in your eternal peace.

Be with the families of those who are sick or have died. As they worry and grieve, defend them from illness and despair. May they know your peace.

Be with the doctors, nurses, researchers and all medical professional who seek to heal and help those affected and who put themselves at risk in the process. May they know your protection and peace.

Be with the leaders of all nations. Give them the foresight to act with charity and true concern for the well-being of the people they are meant to serve. Give them the wisdom to invest in long-term solutions that will help prepare for or prevent future outbreaks. May they know your peace, as they work together to achieve it on earth.

Whether we are home or abroad, surrounded by many people suffering from this illness or only a few, Jesus Christ, stay with us as we endure and mourn, persist and prepare. In place of our anxiety, give us your peace.

Jesus Christ, heal us.

Lent 2020 – Week 6 (Holy Week)

Living Your Baptism in Lent

“Do you believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body and life everlasting?”

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, 239

When we profess our beliefs in a fellowship of others, we are entering into the life of that group of people. What they say, do or profess to be true is what we choose to become also. In the case of becoming catholic in a community of same believers, we are proclaiming yes, we want to experience and show to others the joyful witness of Christ’s love in communion with those of a unified faith. We are Baptized as Christians into the entire community of believers not just at our parish or in the Roman Catholic Church, but all who make up the Body of Christ- the Church- throughout the world and in heaven. The Body of Christ includes all who have been baptized in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

As baptized Christians, we believe that the Holy Spirit animates our life and our communion with those here on earth and those who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith; the Communion of Saints. We who renew our Baptismal promises renounce sin and all its deceptive lures. But as we participate in the sacramental life of the Church we profess to belong, we sometimes sin, and are given the grace of forgiveness. We live in hope of eternal life with God and the resurrection of our bodies when Christ comes again. This is what God promises to us. He will transform us from within and give us

Praying through the week:

This week as we enter more deeply into prayer through the liturgies of Christ’s Paschal Mystery, may we find time for silence. May we join also with other members of the Body of Christ to walk the way of the Lord’s passion and to experience the mystery of our new life, death and resurrection.

In silent reflection:

How am I answering the call to service in the Church?

How is God drawing me to acts of charity and ministry in the Church right now?

How do I contribute to building up the Body of Christ?

How do I share the Good News with others?

*Acts 2:38, 42-47 Psalm 24:3-6 Cor 13:1-3,

Prayer before the Crucifix

Most High glorious God, enlighten the darkness of my heart. Give me true faith, certain hope and perfect charity, sense and knowledge, Lord, that I may carry out Your holy and true command.

Amen

Lenten Prayer

(Also available on our Facebook page.)

Merciful God,

You called us forth from the dust of the earth; you claimed us for Christ in the waters of baptism.

Bless our journey, as we walk through this Lenten season....

WE, the baptized, who seek to live our Baptismal commitment more sincerely.

Bless also, our BROTHERS and SISTERS preparing for their Baptism.

TOGETHER,

refocusing on our Baptismal commitments, we pray for your grace, O God to work in our lives and help transform us more into the body of Christ.

Main Street Greensburg Banner Contest

Before spring break our art teacher, Mrs. Carol Blankman, was contacted by the Main Street Greensburg organization about a local contest open to students in the community. They asked students to design a picture that shows what Greensburg means to them. The winning designs would be made into banners that will be hung from the light poles around the courthouse square. With this being an unexpected art opportunity, Mrs. Blankman was not able to give students class time to work on their designs; she already had projects in progress that needed to be completed. So, she offered this as an extra project to those who were interested. Many students accepted the challenge and submitted designs. Congratulations to eight of those students who took extra time out of their schedule before spring break to submit entries.

Out of the 15 winners for the Main Street Greensburg Banner Contest, eight of them were St. Mary's students!! Each winner will have his/her picture made into a banner that will be hung up around the square. (They are hoping it would happen in the spring....stay tuned!) In addition to having their pictures made into banners, they will each receive a $10.00 gift certificate to a restaurant on the square. The exception is Kylie Harpring who was the overall winner for her grade, so she will receive a $20.00 certificate! Congratulations to all of our winners!!

Gr. 1-2	Harper Kinsey and Caroline Schutte
Gr. 3-4	Kylie Harpring overall winner, other winners were Ashlynn Blake and Rileigh Hash
Gr. 5-6	Ali Nobbe, Ryan Rutherford, and Ethan Smith

Did you know...?

As you can imagine, we have had to cancel or change many of the upcoming events due to the coronavirus restrictions and closings. Here are some of the known changes. Watch the school website for more updated information.

Vacation Bible School

Dear Parishioner,

It is once again time to start preparing for our Vacation Bible School. This year we will be holding the program the week of June 15-19. The time will be 9:00 a.m. – 11:30 a.m. each day. We will use the “2020 Rocky Railway” program this year where kids discover that Jesus’ power pulls us through.

Because of the large number of participants, we need many volunteers, age 14 or older please. Listed below are some of the areas we need help with. Please check the one (ones) that most interest you and return it to the parish office.

Registration materials for your children will be out soon. Thank you for your support of our programs.

In Matthew, chapter 4, at the very beginning, we hear about Jesus being isolated in the desert for 40 days. He was even tempted by the Devil to turn stones into bread, and though He was hungry, He refused to let the Devil win. I've been thinking a lot about Jesus being isolated for 40 days, and the similarities we may feel right now with that being separated from our friends at school, unable to go to events we have been planning and looking forward to, and missing the social component of our lives. Imagine being Jesus, in the middle of a dusty, hot desert with no food, without his followers, disciples, friends, and on top of that, being tested by the Devil. While also fighting the temptations from the actual Devil, I'm sure He fought the demons of anxiety and fear and depression while in the desert. We may be experiencing these same feelings of temptation, anxiety, fear, and depression. It's hard to go from having schedules that are jam packed to schedules that have essentially "ghosted" us in what feels like an instant.

My prayer for all of you today has been:

- * That you feel God always showing up in this time of quarantine.
- * That boredom becomes instead a gift of peaceful solitude.
- * That you may recognize opportunities to practice giving grace and mercy to those you may be quarantined with.
- * That you may grow closer to God through the time within your schedules that has now opened up.
- * That you may laugh, relax, REST, and renew what it is that makes you, YOU!
- * That you may seek multiple moments throughout the day to talk to God in prayer.

The Devil is tempting us right now- He is tempting us to be afraid, to be anxious, to be frustrated, to be filled with mental chaos with this virus and the social distancing it requires. I pray that we can see God in the midst of this and, just like Jesus in Matthew 4:11, we stand up to the Devil and say "Away from me, Satan! For it is written: 'Worship the Lord your God, and serve him only.'"

In Christ's Love, Megan Gehrich

Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,

I believe that you are present
in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love you above all things,
and I desire to receive you into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment
receive you sacramentally,
please come spiritually into my heart.

I embrace you now
as if you were already there and I unite myself wholly to you.

Never permit me
to be separated from you.
Amen.

While we are unable to go to Mass, please watch it online or listen to it on the radio. You can then pray this Spiritual Communion since we cannot receive the Body and Blood of Christ at this time.
