

With your fatherly blessing, Lord, strengthen these servants of yours in their resolve to dedicate themselves as catechists. Grant that they will strive to share with others what they themselves derive from prayer and studying the church's teaching. And let them gladly join those they teach in glorifying your name. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Catechetical Sunday

Parents are truly
the primary catechists of their children.

They prepare the soil and plant the first seeds of faith. On Catechetical Sunday, we not only highlight the work of catechists in parishes and schools, but we also commend parents and guardians and encourage them to take seriously their role of making their Catholic households a place where faith is passed on to the next generation.

"Stewardship, quite simply, is recognizing that everything we have and everything we are is a gift from God and being grateful and generous with those gifts."

"For if we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die for the Lord; so then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's."

— ROMANS 14:8

This is the essence of stewardship – everything we have and everything we are is a gift from God. We aren't "owners" of anything, we are merely "stewards" of the gifts that God has given us. Ask Him how He is calling you to live the life that He intended for you.

Clarity Pregnancy Help Center is having its baby bottle campaign. Here is a recent statement from Clarity. "Compared to this time last year, our client visits have increased 55% and that is mostly for material items such as the need for car seats, pack-n-plays, diapers, wipes, and other baby necessities." We have prayed for an end to abortion and now we must stand behind these mothers who need help raising unexpected babies.

Prayer to our Lady of Sorrows - Feast Day September 15

Our mother of sorrows, with strength from above you stood by the cross, sharing in the sufferings of Jesus, and with tender care you bore Him in your arms, mourning and weeping. We praise you for your faith, which accepted the life God planned for you. We praise you for your hope, which trusted that God would do great things in you. We praise you for your love in bearing with Jesus the sorrows of His passion.

Holy Mary, may we follow your example, and stand by all your children who need comfort and love. Mother of God, stand by us in our trials and care for us in our many needs. Pray for us now and at the hour of our death. Amen!

St. Mary's Soccer Knights

While our school does not have its own soccer team, our middle school students are able to play with the Greensburg Junior High team. Students in grades 6-8 are invited to try out for this co-ed team. We are proud to say that we have seven students who made the roster for this season:

Cole Alexander
Charles Cornett
Will Jones
Emma Kennelly
Eric Witkemper
Parker Yake
Wyatt Yake

Even though they do not wear the Knights' blue and gold, we are no less proud of their efforts on the pitch. They are working hard every day to be good teammates and better their soccer skill with the students from GJHS - for some, their future high school teammates. The team is coached by a former St. Mary's student, Daniel Fayette, and they are having a very successful season. Up to the date that this article was submitted they were undefeated (10-0). We are proud of these students and their teammates! Come out and see this team play before their season ends. They play their home games at Greensburg High School.

Yoga, Spirituality, & the Search for Meaning

We live in a culture starved for meaning, and people are willing to look for it almost anywhere. This has led to an entire subculture of gurus, "mindfulness" and yoga, and some Catholics aren't sure if they should be involved. Alex Frank was deeply immersed in that world; his spiritual director was one of the top yoga spiritual directors in the entire United States! But his search for truth eventually brought him to the Catholic faith and he talks about the dangers that yoga poses to Catholics.
