"Follow me and I will make you fishers of men." MARK 1:17
 Jesus' call to "follow me" is a call to all Christians! The call is in the here and now, in our present circumstances. It is not when we think we are "ready" or have everything in order. God has a much better plan in store for each of us.

Did you know?

On the first day back after Christmas break the teachers and staff put in extra hours after school to get recertified in CPR. Bruce Copple administered the training for us right in the large assembly room at church. We brushed up on our skills for CPR and using the AEDs that we have in the building. We also covered choking and how to Stop the Bleed. These are invaluable skills to have for any member of the community. While we hope we never have to put our skills into practice, we feel confident if the need arises.

"You were made in the image of God. Act accordingly" --Matthew Kelly

With the start of a new year and Lent just weeks away, have you wondered what you can do to make an impactful change in your life? Consider the possibility of joining a Bible study. An enthusiastic group meets on Sundays after the 8:00 Mass in the small assembly room. While every Bible is God's word, we use the Ignatius Study Bible. The footnotes and catechism references lead us slowly but surely through the New Testament. We are currently studying Luke's gospel and will be working through it for months to come.

Anyone is most welcome to drop in to see how it works and decide if it is something you want to continue. You can participate or just listen or gather ideas on how to start a study with your own group. Contact Carol 812-614-1005 or Debbie 812-716-0084 with questions. God is always calling. It is up to you to act accordingly.

Come join us for an exciting Parish Evening of Reflection, presented by the Marian Fathers of the Immaculate Conception at St. Mary Catholic Parish on March 10, 2024. Our speaker will be Fr.

Thaddaeus Lancton, MIC. The Mission will be on the Message and Devotion of Divine Mercy. For more information, you may call 812-663-8427.

Admission is free, materials will be made available on Divine Mercy. Thank you for your prayerful consideration.
