“Pilate again said to them, ‘Then what shall I do with the man whom you call the King of the Jews?’ And they cried out again, ‘Crucify him.’” – MARK 15:12-13

Jesus told us “Whatever you do for the least of my brothers, you do for me.” Every day we are presented opportunities to help someone. Every day we can see the face of Jesus in others and be the face of Jesus to others. Every day we pass by someone in need. Pray for the strength and courage to be the answer to someone’s prayer. - The Stewardship Committee

Symphony in Color

St. Mary's first grader, Khloee McFarland, daughter of Joe and Tiffani McFarland, was recently chosen as one of the Top 100 Gold Ribbon winners in the annual Symphony in Color contest sponsored by the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra. She was invited to a special tea at the Indianapolis Circle Concert Hall on Sunday, March 3, along with her family, art teacher, Mrs. Carol Blankman and the other Gold Ribbon winners.

The contest required students to listen to a musical piece entitled "Carnival of the Animals" written in 1866 by French composer Camille Saint-Saens. The students were asked to interpret the piece visually. Khloee drew two elephants under a bright, blue sky and surrounded by musical notes with a big, yellow sun in the corner. This picture will be on display in the Indiana State Museum from March 23 through April 28. If you are visiting the museum, be sure to stop by and see the work of this talented young student artist!

**Are you the grandparent of a St. Mary's middle school student?? They are hosting a special Grandparents' Day on Wednesday, April 3. Check with your grandchild for the details of this event!

UPCOMING EVENTS:

Mar. 16-31 – Spring Break

April 1 – back to school

April 2 – walk-a-thon
envelopes are due

April 3 – Grandparents Day for Middle School ONLY

April 8 – eLearning day for Solar Eclipse

April 12 – Walk-a-thon

Did you know?

On Thursday, March 14, the first graders hosted a Hoop Hop Showdown in our school gym. Each grade had a twenty-minute time slot to compete in a fast-paced game involving jumping through hula hoops and facing off with an opponent in the classic game of rock-paper-scissors. In order to compete, students needed to bring a donation item for the local AGAPE Center. They collected jars of peanut butter and jelly as well as packages of toilet paper to help those in need within our community.

Marians of the Immaculate Conception

We were happy to have Fr Lancton with us earlier this month at weekend Masses and for a Sunday presentation on the Mercy of Jesus. While he was here, books from the Marians were for sale. St Mary's acquired some books for our parish library.

Stepping on the Serpent      Shining in Spotless Splendor

After Suicide; There's Hope for Them and for You

Consecration to St. Joseph      Understanding Divine Mercy      Diary of St. Faustina

HOLY OILS—The Church makes use of three holy oils: the oil of the sick, the oil of the catechumens and the holy chrism oil. The first two are blessed, and the bishop consecrates the third, ordinarily during the annual Chrism Mass. Each has a distinctive purpose in the Church.

Oil of the Sick

The oil of the sick, pure olive oil, is used for the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. This sacrament can be administered any time and in any place. The priest lays hands on the sick or elderly person, says special prayers and anoints the person by placing oil in the form of a cross on the forehead and hands. Through this sacrament, God gives the sick person grace and strength to bear the illness or infirmity. In addition, many Catholics have witnessed the power of this anointing to bring spiritual, emotional and even physical healing.

Oil of the Catechumens

Both adults and infants prior to baptism are anointed with the oil of the catechumens, pure olive oil. This rite most often takes place during Mass, prior to holy Communion. The priest or deacon anoints the catechumens. He prays that God will instill them with wisdom for discernment and with the strength necessary to avoid evil during their inquiry into the Catholic faith and their preparation for a life with Christ. Similarly, an infant is anointed just before receiving the waters of baptism. This anointing is to help the child ward off evil, avoid temptation and possess the faith necessary to carry the cross of Christ throughout life.

Holy Chrism Oil

The third oil, holy chrism oil, is olive oil mixed with balsam. The oil symbolizes strength, and the fragrant balsam represents the "aroma of Christ" (2 Cor 2:15). Anointing with chrism oil signifies the gift of the Holy Spirit. It is used to consecrate someone or something to God's service.

We witness the use of the holy chrism when young people are confirmed, and at the Easter Vigil when adults are confirmed. Chrism oil is also part of the baptismal rite. Following an infant's baptism with water and before he receives the white garment, the cross with chrism oil is traced on the crown of the child's head, marking him as a Christian. Holy chrism oil is used as well during the ordination of a priest (the Sacrament of Holy Orders) and the consecration of a bishop. It is the anointing used in the consecration of a church and the blessing of an altar and the vessels used at Mass.

PALM SUNDAY

SUNDAY
March 24

This Sunday commemorates the beginning of the last days of Jesus' life. The palms we wave joyfully today are later burned. The ashes will be used next Lent to begin the season of penance. Youth Choir's Passion Play will be part of our Palm Sunday celebration once again.

CHRISM MASS

TUESDAY
March 26

Will be held at the Cathedral in Indianapolis at 2:00 pm. During this Mass, holy oils are blessed by the bishop and are used during the year for anointing the sick, baptism and confirmation. Priest recommit their vows at this Mass. People representing each parish in the diocese are present to receive the oils and take them back to their parish. There will be no 5:30 pm Mass here.

SEDER SUPPER

WEDNESDAY
March 27

Will be at the St. Mary's Gym at 6:30 pm. Seder Supper (also called the Passover Meal) is what evolved into our present Mass and is similar to the Last Supper that Christ celebrated with his apostles. It is a celebration of God leading the Jews from slavery in Egypt (the Exodus) and a time for fellowship. (RSVP at tkramer@stmarysgreensburg or 663-8427 ext 200.)

The Triduum (Latin for "three days") our most holy days are:

Day 1: Holy Thursday, the Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper - the beginning of this three-day celebration.

Day 2: Good Friday, celebration of the Lord's Passion

Day 3: Holy Saturday, the night of nights. The primary celebration of the resurrection of the Lord.

HOLY THURSDAY

THURSDAY
March 28

Mass is celebrated ONLY AT 7:00 pm. This is the day of Evening Mass of the Last Supper. The emphasis of the Mass is upon Jesus' example to serve one another. Jesus calls us to be servants. This is the beginning of our Eucharist and of Priesthood. The oils that we received at the Chrism Mass are placed near the baptistery (Oil of sick, Oil of Catechumen, Holy Chrism-baptism, Confirmation, Ordination). Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament will follow the 7:00 pm Mass until 11:00 pm. The Body of Christ will be placed in a tabernacle in the large assembly. You are invited to come and spend some quiet time with our Lord.

GOOD FRIDAY

FRIDAY
March 29

Service is at 3:00 pm. We gather quietly and listen to the reading of the Passion from the Gospel of St. John. We pray for all the world's needs. Veneration of the Cross will be followed by our Communion procession.

HOLY SATURDAY

SATURDAY
March 30

Night of all nights, the Easter Vigil begins at 8:00 pm. This first Mass of the Resurrection contrasts light and darkness, death and life. Highlights of this evening are the lighting of Easter Candle, blessing of the baptismal water, and receiving into our faith those who have been taking instructions in the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults). This is the height of Holy Week and the climax of Lent. Holy Saturday Easter Vigil is an Easter Sunday Mass.

EASTER SUNDAY

SUNDAY
March 31

Masses will be celebrated at 7:00, 9:00, and 11:00 am in church. New life and fresh hope have come in the risen Christ. We celebrate with a renewal of baptismal promises to reject sin and evil, to love God and follow Jesus.

"This is the day the Lord has made. Let us be glad and rejoice. ALLELUIA."

“The Lord is close to the broken hearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit.”

Psalm 34:18

Pontifical Good Friday Collection

March 29, 2024

Serving those in need in the Holy Land

Commissariat of the Holy Land
1400 Quincy St. NE - Washington, DC 20017
www.MYFranciscan.org

Pope Francis has asked our parish to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land, where they are now less than 2% of the population. Your support is essential to help the Church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools, and offer religious education. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines of Christianity, including in Jerusalem, Nazareth, and Bethlehem, to name only a few. The pandemic had hit Christians in the Holy Land particularly hard. Most of them depend on pilgrimages for work. The war made their situation even more dramatic. In these times of crisis, the Pontifical Good Friday Collection is necessary to meet the basic needs of the People of God still living in this Land and to maintain a Christian presence where the Church was born.

When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land. PLEASE BE GENEROUS!

For more information about Christians in the Holy Land, visit www.myfranciscan.org or www.custodia.org
