Did you know?

School will be closed on Monday for the solar eclipse. Students have learned about this once-in-a-lifetime event in their classes this past week to prepare them for what they are about to witness. Each student was given a pair of solar viewing glasses to use as they watch at home with their families.

It is not often to be in the path of totality - our next chance in Indiana is in 2158! During the eclipse the shadow of the moon will travel across the US from southwest to northeast at 2000 MPH! We are praying for clear skies!

Easter Vigil was exciting at St. Mary Parish. The church was beautiful & we welcomed several new people into our church. We were blessed to be with those who came into full communion with the Catholic Church:

*Jade Hays
Lorna Redwine
Payten Ewing
Jennifer Gaddis
Natalie Glidden*

*Kristol Hadler
Judi Ramer
Steve Ramer
Taylor Schwering
Caleb Stapp*

Thank you to Anita Navarra, Fr. John Meyer, Deacon Brad Anderson, Brian Wenning, Mike Novak, all the sponsors and all who were a part of this faith journey.

We hope you'll get a chance to meet and make welcome our newest members of St Mary Parish.

Our Holy Week services and Easter celebrations were beautiful this year. Thank you to the many who helped to set up, decorate, and lead our week of remembering the Lord's Passion and Resurrection. Fr. John Meyer our celebrant and Deacon Brad Anderson, our cantors, musicians, and organists at each Mass leading us to praise God with song. Vince Schwering, Megan Gehrich, Brad Fox, Tom Litmer, Tina Kramer, and our sacristans, Glenn & Laura Jo Tebbe and Diane Novak,

A big thank you to Hayley Trenkamp, the youth involved with the passion drama, and the musicians and cantors at Palm Sunday Masses for beginning our Holy Week with a reenactment. We appreciate the time and commitment put into planning and presenting this drama to help us enter more deeply into Holy Week. Thank you to Carl and Rosie Stier for leading their crew in organizing, preparing, and cleaning up for the Seder Meal on Wednesday, helping us to recall the Exodus and gives hope of our faith for future generations. Thank you to our Hospitality Committee for providing the reception for our new members after the Easter Vigil.

ADOPT-A-VILLAGE - HEARTS FOR HONDURAS FOOD FOR THE POOR

Maria Consuelo Aguilar is a hard-working grandmother who is raising her two grandsons, 13 and 15. They were not present at her house as they were working. She lives along the road and while we were there, a dump truck dumped rocks and dirt directly behind her house. She will have to move before her new home is ready. Her son died of anemia at 36 and her daughter was assassinated. She had a chair that was made of an old tire with a piece of wood and cardboard across the hole so she could sit. She had planted flowers in paper cups and placed them on her wall for decoration. She had planted other flowers outside her house, also.
