“I have now brought you the first fruits of the products of the soil which you, O Lord, have given to me.” DEUTERONOMY 26:10

This line from the Old Testament offers two challenges. First, do you give to God from your “first fruits” - the first and best that you have to offer, or do you give from what you have leftover? Second, do you realize that everything you have and that everything you are has been given to you by God? Be your best you!

This annual event is sponsored by our local Optimist Club and is open to students in middle school and high school. Students write their own four to five minute speeches on the chosen topic and then present them to a panel of judges. This year's theme was, "How optimism guides me through trying times." There were ten contestants in the competition this year and eight of them were from St. Mary's! Participating this year were:

- Gabby Miller (grade 7)
- Meli Colin (grade 7)
- Mackenzie Lohrum (grade 7)
- Charles Cornett (grade 7)
- Jada Gault (grade 7)
- Isabella Harrison (grade 7)
- Erica Scheidler (grade 7)
- Rylee O'Mara (grade 7)

Optimist Oratorical contestants from St. Mary's
L to R: Mackenzie Lohrum, Charles Cornett, Gabby Miller, Jada Gault, Meli Colin, Rylee O'Mara, Isabella Harrison, Erica Scheidler.

The winner this year was a Greensburg High School student, but Meli Colin came in second and Gabby Miller was third. They will attend an upcoming Optimist Club meeting to perform their speeches for the members and receive their monetary prizes. Meli will go on to compete at the district level next month. Congratulations to all the contestants!
