Battle of the Books

On Tuesday, April 8, the Greensburg Public Library hosted its annual Battle of the Books for middle school students. Saturday April 12 was the day for the elementary Battle. Teams of students from St. Mary's, Greensburg, North Decatur and South Decatur read 10 novels chosen by the librarians in preparation for answering questions about the details found in the books. The teams met at the library to compete head-to-head. The librarians read the questions and tally the responses. The team with the most correct answers at the end of the event brings home the trophy.

Our fifth grade team was small-only two students- but they gave it their best effort. Team members included Sydney Fry and Anna Davis. They were coached by Miss Deb Greiwe. Our sixth grade team also came up short of a trophy but competed well. Team members were Harper Hankins, Caitlyn Bedel, Ivan Leon, Owen Jones, Sophia Terkhorn and Kathryn Stier. Ms. Trish Witkemper was their coach.

We are proud to say that our seventh grade team won this year! Congratulations to the following students on the seventh grade team: Erica Scheidler, Zoe Wade, Mackenzie Lohrum, Ronald Elliott, Lilli Welsh, Jada Gault, and Isabella Harrison. They were coached by Mrs. Laura Domingo.

Adult & Youth Faith Formation

"To serve with the purpose of enriching Catholic faith formation"

For Parents & Families

Here are some ideas for promoting vocations in your family:

- Celebrate anniversaries of baptism, using them as an occasion to talk about the universal vocation to holiness that all Christians are given in their baptism
- Invite priests, seminarians, or religious men and women to your home for dinner. Start with your parish priest(s).
- Pray daily as a family for vocations - that children will know the vocation God is calling them to follow and that those who have embraced a vocation will be faithful to their calling.
- Using the Seminarian Prayer Cycle, pray by name for an Archdiocesan seminarian every day.
- Attend the annual Priesthood Ordinations for the Archdiocese of Indianapolis, typically held on the first Saturday of June at Ss. Peter and Paul Cathedral in Indianapolis.
- As a family, visit a seminary (such as Saint Meinrad Seminary) or a religious community for men and women.
- Attend Mass together as a family one day during the week, in addition to Sundays.
- For youth or young adults, encourage them to attend events such as the National Catholic Youth Conference (NCYC) and World Youth Day, plus parish and Archdiocesan sponsored gatherings of young people.

Thank you

Our Holy Week services and Easter celebrations were beautiful this year. Thank you to the many who helped to set up, decorate, and lead our week of remembering the Lord's Passion and Resurrection. Fr. John Meyer our celebrant and Deacon Brad Anderson, our cantors, musicians, and organists at each Mass leading us to praise God with song. Zoey Alexander, Megan Gehrich, Richard & Diane Hoeing, Brad Fox, Mark Hermes, and our sacristans, Deb Greiwe and Diane Novak. A big thank you to Hayley Trenkamp, the youth involved with the passion drama, and the musicians and cantors at Palm Sunday Masses for beginning our Holy Week with a reenactment. We appreciate the time and commitment put into planning and presenting this drama to help us enter more deeply into Holy Week. Thank you to Carl and Rosie Stier for leading their crew in organizing, preparing, and cleaning up for the Seder Meal on Wednesday, helping us to recall the Exodus and gives hope of our faith for future generations. Thank you to our Hospitality Committee for providing the reception for our new members after the Easter Vigil.
