Look What's New!

With a new school year comes other new things. Our school library was gifted generous donation from St. Mary's alumnus, Aaron Swinford. He gifted the library $5000, most of which was used to purchase this new rolling bookshelf to accommodate our growing collection of books that are lovingly overseen by his mother, Donna Swinford. We are very grateful for Aaron's donation and Donna's time making our library a wonderful part of our school!

With our growing enrollment, the kindergarten classes have been getting larger. There were originally just 20 cubbies in each room so this summer a talented local woodworker, Mike Land, crafted two more for each kindergarten room. He donated his time and materials for this project and the results are stunning! They are a perfect match to what was already in the rooms! We are very grateful for his generous gift.

Second Collection Next Weekend - Holy Cross Mission Appeal

A second collection will be done at all Masses next weekend, August 30-31. This will be for the Holy Cross Mission Appeal. Learn more about this cause at missionappeal.holycrossmissions.org

Holy Cross Mission Appeal | August 30-31, 2025

Over 1,000 priests and brothers of the Congregation of Holy Cross make God known, loved, and served in 17 countries every year.

Our ministries help women in Tanzania sew clothing alongside their fellow parishioners, children of Bangladeshi tea laborers receive educational scholarships, and families at Yancana Huasy in Peru support their children with special needs. Christ's light shines in each of these "communities of the coming kingdom" (Constitution 2:12).

Your support for our August 30-31 parish Mission Appeal given by Fr. Shohag Gabil, C.S.C., a Holy Cross priest from Bangladesh completing his doctorate at Notre Dame, will aid the Congregation's work around the globe. Thank you for your generosity.
