WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR THE Care of Creation

Monday, September 1

The 2025 edition of the World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation takes place during the Jubilee Year, which also marks the 10th anniversary of the encyclical Laudato si'. "Seeds of Peace and Hope" is the theme chosen by Pope Francis for this year's edition. The Season of Creation is an ecumenical initiative that takes place annually from September 1 (the Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation) to October 4 (the feast of St. Francis of Assisi). The Dicastery for Promoting Integral Human Development said the theme for the 2025 Season of Creation is "Peace with Creation," and the chosen Biblical reference for the initiative is Isaiah 32:14–18. As highlighted in the Magisterium of Pope Francis and his recent predecessors, peace and care for creation share a close link, as is visible in the papal messages for the World Day of Peace in 1990 and 2010. Likewise, there is also a strong connection between war and degradation of our planet, which is seen in the waste of resources through destruction and armaments. The Dicastery's statement invited Christians to pray together so that conditions conducive to peace may be created—a lasting, shared peace that gives rise to hope. It noted that the metaphor of the seed indicates the need for long-term commitment, while expressing hope that the seeds of peace may emerge across all continents.

Pope Saint Gregory the Great

Feast Day: September 3

Pope Saint Gregory the Great was born in Rome around the year 540. He came from a wealthy and respected family. His parents were Christians, and they raised him to love God and to care for others. Gregory had a good education and became a government official. But he later gave up his job to become a monk. He wanted to live a simple life and serve God in prayer.

In 590, Gregory was chosen to be pope, even though he didn't want the position. He accepted it because he believed it was his duty. As pope, he worked to strengthen the Church and help people in need. He cared deeply about spreading the Christian faith and helping the poor. He also wanted to make sure the Church was run well. Pope Saint Gregory the Great's leadership had a big impact on the Church. He sent missionaries to convert people who did not know Christ. He wrote important books to guide priests and bishops. He also cared about the way Christians worshiped and helped organize Church music. Gregory was a humble and wise leader, and he is remembered as one of the greatest popes in history. Pope Saint Gregory the Great shows us what it means to lead with humility and serve others. Even though he came from a wealthy and powerful family, he chose to give up comfort and live as a monk. This reminds us that true happiness does not come from money or power, but from following God's will and caring for others. Gregory teaches us to put aside our own desires and focus on what really matters.

How can Gregory's humility inspire us to live more simply?
