Luke 14:33
When we first hear this statement, it seems that Jesus is making an unrealistic demand upon us. How can we renounce all our possessions? Once we renounce the idea that we possess or are entitled to anything, it is much easier to share the many gifts that God has given us. Then we truly are his Disciples.

Patriot Day Remembrance

Thursday, September 11

Here, in this place of remembrance, I would ask everyone together, each in his or her own way, to spend a moment in silence and prayer. Let us implore from on high the gift of commitment to the cause of peace. Peace in our homes, our families, our schools and our communities. Peace in all those places where war never seems to end. Peace for those faces which have known nothing but pain. Peace throughout this world which God has given us as the home of all and a home for all. Simply PEACE.

Excerpt from prayer by Pope Francis, at an interreligious prayer service at Ground Zero.

Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time Reflection

Free to Love

St. Paul must have understood today's Gospel very well. Like Jesus, he knew what being a disciple would cost. It landed him in prison. Also like Jesus, he is not afraid to ask others to take that discipleship seriously. And he is not ashamed to ask a favor: Would Philemon accept his runaway slave, Onesimus, back into his home? Not just as a slave, but as a member of his family.

In the Gospel, Jesus talks about the cost of discipleship. Paul takes that a step further—he reminds us to accept that cost freely. He could have ordered his friend to free the slave. Instead of giving an order, he called Philemon to respond to his request freely. Perhaps we can learn from that example. Like Paul, when Jesus commands us to love one another, he leaves us free to accept that challenge. Remember, he always says, "Love one another, as I have loved you" (John 13:34). Jesus was never compelled to cure anyone or forgive their sins. Yet how often do we go to church because we were told we have to?

We can live life just doing what we have to. Or when Jesus offers us a new motive—love for God because God loves us—we can choose to follow him freely. Let us ask the Spirit to fill us with the freedom to love.

Meet Mrs. Meyer

We have a new face on the middle school teaching staff this year. Mrs. Tracy Meyer has joined our St. Mary's family as the middle school health and PE teacher. She will also be covering the maternity leave for our K-5 PE teacher later this year. Tracy and her husband Rick live in Oldenburg and they have three adult children: Peyton, Colt, and Morgan Meyer. She has a bachelor's degree from Purdue University and a master's degree from Ball State University. Mrs. Meyer retired after a 32-year career teaching in Sunman Dearborn Schools. Now she is sharing her talents with our students. In her free time, she enjoys camping, playing cards and spending time with family. We are glad to welcome Mrs. Meyer to our staff!

Our Lady of Sorrows

Our Lady of Sorrows

The Church dedicates the month of September to remembering Mary, as Our Lady of Sorrows or Mater Dolorosa, the Mother of sorrows. Simeon's prophecy in Luke 2: 34-35 tells Mary her heart will be pierced—"Simeon blessed them and said to Mary, his mother, 'This child is chosen by God for the destruction and salvation of many in Israel. He will be a sign from God which many people will speak against and so reveal their secret thoughts. And sorrow, like a sharp sword, will break your own heart.'" Traditionally the Church meditates on the "Seven Sorrows" of our Blessed Mother. The sorrows are shown by seven swords piercing her heart. The seven sorrows are:

1. The prophecy of Simeon
2. The Holy Family's flight into Egypt
3. The loss of the child Jesus for three days
4. The meeting of Mary and Jesus as he carried his cross
5. Jesus' crucifixion and death
6. Jesus' sacred body taken down from the cross
7. Jesus' burial

This was Mary's role in salvation history, and what merited her place as the spiritual Mother of all Christians. The Feast of Our Lady of Sorrows is September 15th.
