"When the Lord saw her, he was moved with pity for her..." Luke 7:13

In seeing the grieving widow, Jesus is moved with compassion, a deep, selfless emotion that compels him to act. This is a model for stewardship: to not just feel pity but to be moved to action when seeing a need. A steward empowered by faith, can use their resources (time, talent, and treasure) to help restore others, providing hope and alleviating suffering. The Stewardship Commission

8:50 am to 9:50 am (Between 8 am and 10 am Mass)

Beginning: November 30, 2025, and continuing for a total of six sessions

Cost for Book: ~$14 (payable at first session)

What if you had walked beside the Virgin Mary from the Annunciation to the point at which she and Joseph found Jesus in the Temple? How might seeing Christ as a child impact you and your faith? Come join us as we explore the answers to these questions by examining six key moments in Jesus' early life. We will be using the book "Gaze Upon Jesus: Experiencing Christ's Childhood through the Eyes of Women" from Ave Maria Press and we invite the women of the Parish to join us for the journey. Please call the parish office by November 5th so that we can have enough books available. This is one of our favorite book studies, and we hope you will join us for the journey into Christ's Childhood.

(Note: If you've joined us in the past for this study, it is the same book, so just let us know you are coming and will not need a book.)

Saint Martin de Porres (1579-1639)

Feast Day: November 3

An old illustration pictures Martin de Porres, finger to his lips—"Shhhh!"—as several mice peek out of sacristy vestment drawers, preparing to join a rodent "procession" following him out of church! Martin's rescue of these unwelcome "guests," and statues depicting him, broom in hand, feeding a dog, cat, bird, and mouse from the same dish symbolize his life and sanctity. Initially denied entrance by the Dominicans because of "mixed race" (Spanish father, Panamanian mother), Martin cherished society's marginalized. For him, menial tasks, lovingly done, were sacred. Great and lowly alike feasted on his charity. Enemies were reconciled by this "poor mulatto" (his self-description), kind even to those whose racism demeaned him. Apprenticed to a surgeon-barber in his youth—thus patron saint of hair stylists and public health providers—Martin dispensed healing and dignity to Lima's poorest, serving in them the Christ he adored for hours in the Blessed Sacrament. By the time he died, all Peru called him "Martin the Charitable," a title even those of us who will never be called "saint" might still aspire to.
