Matthew 5:3
 Blessed are those who are oppressed and downtrodden, the homeless, the hungry, the thirsty, and the least of all. We must do our best to help these "brothers" for when we do it is pleasing in God's eyes. Give yourself a check-up. Is your faith healthy? A healthy Christian is actively doing or giving to others.

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Boast in the Lord

What are you most proud of? What do you like to boast about? Were you top of your class in college? Do you work harder than anyone in your office? Everyone likes to have something they are the best at, or at least very good. But it really is kind of silly to base your own worth on what you accomplish. What truly makes us important is that we are loved by God. Our second reading tells how God uses the foolish, weak, or poorest people to shame those who are wise, strong, and wealthy. Why? Because God loves the poor, the weak, the disabled, the homeless just as much as God loves the important people.

And it's not just the external qualities that are important. Some wealthy people have great love for the poor. Some of the best teachers only work with disabled children. Our Gospel on the Beatitudes today makes that clear if you listen carefully. Blessed are not just the poor, but the poor in spirit; not only the hungry, but those who hunger for righteousness. That's what Saint Paul means when he says, "Whoever boasts, should boast in the Lord" (1 Corinthians 1:31).

So how do we get to be "important" to God? Instead of asking God to make my projects a success, I can ask what God wants me to do. And for all the good that you do, remember to thank the Lord.

Beginning: February 22 and continuing for a total of six sessions

Cost for Book: ~ $15 (payable at first session)

What if you could have been a witness to the events of the last days of Jesus' life—walking with him as he entered Jerusalem, observing his crucifixion, and embracing him on Easter? Come join us as we explore the answers to these questions by examining six universal gifts of women by looking at Holy Week, Easter, and Pentecost through the eyes of women in the gospels. We will be using the book "Walk in Her Sandals: Experiencing Christ's Passion through the Eyes of Women" from Ave Maria Press and we invite the women of the Parish to join us for the journey.

Please call the parish office by February 3rd so that we can have enough books available. This is one our favorite book studies, and we hope you will join us for the journey into Christ's Passion, Death, and Resurrection.

(Note: If you've joined us in the past for this study, it is the same book, so just let us know you are coming and will not need a book.) For all the 2026 offerings for the Sunday Morning Women's Faith Share Group, see the flier in the kiosks in the gathering space.
