The generosity of being a good steward of your gifts has a positive effect on people and it is contagious. Good works encourages more good works. Generosity is a by-product of a grateful lifestyle. Most of all it grows your faith when you give. It just feels good to let your light shine.

Catholic Schools' Week

Every year, the last week of January is reserved to celebrate all that is wonderful and unique about Catholic Schools in our country. The committee of teachers planned a week full of activities and special events and themes, but God had other plans in the form of 12+ inches of beautiful snow that kept students learning from home for the first three days of the week. But that did not stop us from having a fabulous Catholic Schools' Week. When the students returned to school on Thursday, they got to come in their pajamas and celebrate their teachers. A delicious lunch was catered by Los Charros and sponsored by the Parish Festival Committee and classes were monitored by parent volunteers while the teachers enjoyed a longer-than-usual lunch break. On Friday our students had the opportunity to meet many members of various religious orders from congregations near and far. We started the day with a Mass at 8:15 and, despite school being on a two-hour delay, we had a good turn-out. Fr. John Barker from Oldenburg officiated the Mass along with another visiting priest and Deacon Brad. A choir of Sisters sang a special song during the offertory procession, and the Knights of Columbus were in full dress to lead the celebrants in and out of Mass. After Mass the students who were able to attend had the chance to play dodgeball against the religious in the school gym until the delayed school day started at 10:00 AM. Throughout the morning, each class was scheduled to meet with various members of the religious orders and talk and ask questions. Students also got to eat lunch with them and the Sisters even brought cookies as a special treat! At the end of the day, the entire student body gathered in the gym for a program led by Sr. Faustina. She talked to the students about her calling and told them that God has a mission for each of them. She talked about being quiet and listening to the tug in their hearts that is the Holy Spirit. And then she and the other religious showed our students that not only do they work hard doing God's mission and pray hard for all of the world's needs, but they PLAY hard, too! Check out these pictures of our fun with the visiting religious! What a great way to end our celebration of Catholic Schools' Week! A big thanks goes out to Mrs. Rebecca Harpring for organizing this wonderful event.

The students raced on scooters to deliver religious book covers to the Sisters.

A student team raced against a team of religious using wheelchairs.

The Sisters competed along with Mrs. Schutte and Miss Smith to see who could jump rope the longest.
