School Zone

Chuck-a-Duck

Every year the St. Mary's middle school hosts a STEAM Fair where students display their projects that fall into one or more of the STEAM categories: Science, Technology, Engineering, Art or Music. The eighth grade students come up with ways to impact the community with their projects. This year, Abigail Jones did a project to raise money for pancreatic cancer research in memory of her Papaw Marvin Jones, who passed away from the disease in May of 2025.

Her project was called "Chuck-a-Duck". For several mornings before the first bell rang at school, Abigail sold rubber ducks outside the school office. Those who purchased the duck were invited to come to the girls' basketball games on either March 3 or 5 to "chuck the duck" onto the basketball court at halftime. She placed a sheet on the court with a purple target in the center. The owner of the duck that landed closest to the target was the winner of a Pizza King gift card. She sold over 300 ducks and raised $1,100 for pancreatic cancer research with this project!

Abigail would like to thank Mr. Will Brown and Centra Credit Union who donated the ducks and Pizza King for donating the gift cards that were awarded to the two winners. She would also like to thank her teacher, Ms. Witkemper, for helping her organize the fundraiser. This is just one example of how our students are living the Gospel values! Way to go, Abby!

People unfamiliar with Scripture often assume that women play a small, secondary role in the Bible. But in fact, they were central figures in numerous Biblical tales. It was Queen Esther's bravery at a vital point in history which saved her entire people. The Bible contains warriors like Jael, judges like Deborah, and prophets like Miriam. The first person to witness Jesus' resurrection was Mary Magdalene, who promptly became the first Christian evangelist, eager to share the news which would change the world forever. In The Women of the Bible Speak, Shannon Bream opens up the lives of sixteen of these Biblical women, arranging them into pairs and contrasting their journeys. In pairing their stories, Shannon helps us reflect not only on the meaning of each individual's life, but on how they relate to each other and to us.

We invite the women of the Parish to join us as we look at these fascinating women and how they still have lessons to teach us.

Please call the Parish Office (812-663-8427) to register by March 25, 2026, so that we can have enough books available. We hope you will join us as we learn from the Women in Scripture. For all the 2026 offerings for the Sunday Morning Women's Faith Share Group, see the flier in the kiosks in the gathering space.

Jesus Wept

We might think Jesus had nothing to cry about. After all, he knows that the life we experience after earthly death is the point at which our eyes are opened and our hearts are completely filled at last. He knows that he will soon raise Lazarus from the dead, and everyone will be rejoicing and their sorrow forgotten. So, why did he weep?

It seems he wept at the sight of others' sorrow; he saw Mary and the others grieving over Lazarus' death and became "perturbed and deeply troubled," and he wept. This is a profound insight into the very Heart of the Savior – a compassionate heart truly entering into the sorrow of others and reaching out to alleviate their pain.

He is again "perturbed" when some of the bystanders suggest that he was unable to do anything about this, that he should have done something earlier to save Lazarus. What caused this agitation was not that he took personal offense at their doubtfulness. His Heart is always for others first! His pain was caused by their continued lack of faith, which was detrimental to THEM, not to him. He is the Savior and Redeemer, who calls them to believe and trust.

Jesus is also a Teacher, who does not miss any "teachable moment." So, as he is about to perform this extraordinary act, he wants to make sure that the lessons are understood clearly. One of these lessons is that Jesus only does what the Father wills, that his power over sickness and demons and death itself is the will of the Father and comes from the Father ("Father, I thank you for hearing me. I know that you always hear me.") but it is truly also HIS power. In the Gospel, Jesus never asks the Father to do the healing, the casting out, or the raising from the dead; he speaks directly for himself. "He cried out in a loud voice, 'Lazarus, come out!' The dead man came out."

In this one scene, Jesus is accomplishing many things, "for the glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified through it":

- Jesus shows he is beyond any fear of danger by returning to the people who had rejected him and tried to stone him to death.
- Jesus reminds the disciples that he walks by a greater light, and they can too.
- Jesus strengthens the faith of those present and declares, "I am the resurrection and the life."
- Jesus raises the one he loves, four days after he died.
- Jesus restores a brother to two grieving sisters.
- Jesus demonstrates his divine power to the bystanders and the disciples.
- Jesus draws many others to believe in him.

This Lent, has my faith deepened? Do I believe that whatever God allows is for a greater good, for His greater glory? Do I trust that his love and mercy never fail and will ultimately relieve every sorrow? Is my heart freer to receive the fullness of redemption in Christ?

St. Gabriel

The Blessed Mother

On the Feast of the Annunciation, we celebrate the day that the Angel Gabriel visited the Virgin Mary announcing that she was going to be the mother of Jesus. Even though Mary did not understand completely, she trusted God's plan for her life, and she said yes to becoming the mother of God.
